WELCOME LETTER

It is an honor for Italy to host the "15th International Symposium on Sjögren's Syndrome". The Congress comes back to Italy for the second time after the edition held in Venice on December 1999.

The Symposium was proposed on behalf of GRISS (Italian Research Group on Sjögren's Syndrome) and SIR (Società Italiana di Reumatologia – the Italian Society of Rheumatology), with the hope of encouraging scientific research and interaction especially between younger colleagues, from Italy and from countries abroad.

We are confident that the Symposium will be useful to all attendees, to improve the clinical and scientific progress, to better focus future research and therefore patient care.

The program covers recent developments in pathogenesis, clinical assessment with stratification, lymphoproliferation, and personalized medicine. The discussion will also focus on the nomenclature of Sjögren's Syndrome and the implications of COVID-19 infection, still present worldwide.

The focus is on the evaluation and understanding of the pathogenesis of Sjögren's Syndrome associated with other autoimmune diseases, and on how different medical specialists and primary care physicians can better coordinate with each other in dealing with patients and in the field of research.

The needs and opinions of patients will be another key topic of discussion, with the participation of representatives from European and US Associations, with different health policies applying in different countries.

Discussion will be also about recent developments in treatment and testing of new drugs, along with International cooperative research, which is also extremely important.

Welcome everybody to the Symposium and to Rome! We hope this will be a profitable experience and that you will be able to enjoy the Eternal City and this wonderful country!

CONGRESS PLATFORM AND VIRTUAL ACCESS

Being an hybrid event, all the sessions of the Sjögren's Symposium are live streamed through the platform <https://sjogrensymposium.livebit.it>

For the first access you will be required to enter the access code received by the Organizing Secretariat. For further log-in please create your own username and password.

A chat with the Organizing Secretariat in the platform is available for assistance.

ABSTRACT BOOK

All submitted abstracts, accepted as oral presentation or poster, have been published in the Abstract Book of the Congress, in the special edition of the Clinical and Experimental Rheumatology Journal.

The abstract book is available for download from the Congress website <https://www.sjogren2022.com/>

GUIDELINES FOR CHAIRPERSONS AND SPEAKERS

- Locate your session room in due time and find yourself there at least 10 minutes before the beginning of the session to meet each other
- Respect the timing allowed to the session and to each presentation
- All presentations, discussions and questions must be in English

Audiovisual instructions

Speakers are requested to submit their presentations (16:9 format) to the slide centre at least 2 hour before the start of their session. Personal computers cannot be connected to the projectors in the session room and presentations cannot be loaded directly on the computer of the session rooms. If speakers created their presentation using a system different from Windows (such as OS MAC or Linux), they are kindly requested to provide presentations in a Windows-compatible format and to come earlier to the slide centre, in order to have enough time to solve possible compatibility issues. At the slide centre our hostess will welcome and help speakers. Experienced technicians will assist speakers in transferring the slides and make changes if needed. Slide presentations will then be uploaded to the Auditorium.

BEST PAPERS

The best posters presented will receive a prize during the Closing Ceremony. The selection will be done by the Chairs during sessions

ORAL COMMUNICATIONS

Participants presenting in oral sessions are requested to submit their presentations to the slide centre at least 2 hour before the start of their session.

CME ACCREDITATION

An application has been made to the EACCME® for CME accreditation of this event.

Attendance is monitored through a scanner device to check learner's entrance/exit each day. Attending 100% of the sessions is a main requirement to obtain credits.

Participants will receive their certificate of attendance and UEMS credit points certificate once they have filled in the evaluation form through an online system. All the information will be sent by e-mail after the congress by the Organizing Secretariat. Make sure we have your most updated email address at the Registration desk.

TIPS WHEN IN ROME

TIPS WHEN IN ROME

Here's what you need to know when visiting Rome

Order coffee at the bar

Order your coffee directly at the bar to avoid paying a service charge for being served at a table, which often doubles your bill. When you enter a café, locate the cashier and place your order, then take your receipt to the bar to receive your beverage of choice. Espresso only takes a minute to enjoy so it's easy to drink it standing up.

P.S. Don't order a cappuccino after noon: avoid committing one of Italy's most infamous food crimes and enjoy your frothy cappuccino before noon. Cappuccino is only suitable at breakfast (preferably paired with a cornetto, an Italian croissant). Hint: a caffè macchiato, an espresso with a splash of milk, is an acceptable alternative that you can order at any hour of the day without raising any eyebrows.

Gelato is acceptable any time, any season

Italy's longstanding customs and traditions can be difficult to navigate, but you don't have to worry about eating gelato in the colder months. Italians enjoy this treat year-round and Rome's best artisanal gelaterie change their flavours seasonally, so look out for juicy fruit flavours and interesting combinations with pistachios and hazelnuts.

Get your stomach on Roman time

Lunch between 13-14.

Aperitivo between 17-19.

Restaurants open for dinner from 19.30 – occasionally 19.00. They'll really start to fill up around 20.30-21.00.

Rome is absolutely packed with delicious food, but if you're looking for the most traditional pastas in Rome, look no further than the four dishes: carbonara, pasta alla gricia, amatriciana, and cacio& pepe are all sublime.

Don't consider your trip to Rome complete unless you've at least sampled a few bites of each!

TIPS WHEN IN ROME

Tipping is not obligatory, but it's appreciated

Tipping has not traditionally been part of the Italian culture, as service charge is generally included in the bill as the coperto (cover) or breadbasket but leaving a few extra coins at the table is often appreciated. Depending on the final price of your meal, the level of service you received and the number of people in your party, you can leave anywhere from 5-10% on the table.

Italy still largely functions on a cash economy, so be sure to carry cash with you during your time in Rome. Coins, or spicci, are especially welcome at cafés small shops so hold on to your Euros – they're a precious commodity here.

Buy bus tickets ahead of time

Rome's public transportation leaves much to be desired, but if you need to take a bus in the city centre, be sure to stock up on bus tickets ahead of time because you can't buy them on the bus. You can buy tickets at any tabaccheria in the city, little convenient shops that are designated with a large T.

Tickets are €1.50 each, or opt for a 24-hour, 48-hour or weekly ticket for a discounted price. Tickets are valid for all forms of public transportation in Rome (bus, metro, tram and local train).

Watch your bags

Always be mindful of your bags on public transportation and around key tourist attractions (this is a general rule that you should use in any crowded, large city anyway). The city is very safe but petty crime is rampant, especially on crowded buses and metros. Thieves in Rome are stealthy, so always keep your bags zipped and held in front of you; wallets should ideally be tucked in your inner jacket pockets. Never leave a bag hanging off a chair at a restaurant.

Dress modestly in church

Rome has over 900 churches that house some of the city's most beautiful works of art, so don't miss stepping inside to marvel at their treasures, whether you're devout or not. Just be sure to dress appropriately to enter these holy spaces: women's shoulders should be covered, and skirts should hit at or below the knee, while men should wear pants or shorts that extend to the knees. Linen pants are a great option for the summer and a scarf is a perfect last-minute cover-up if you're wearing a tank top.

TIPS WHEN IN ROME

Don't try to see the Vatican Museums and Colosseum on the same day

It's an absolutely exhausting endeavor, and won't leave time for seeing much of anything else that day in Rome!

Book tickets and tours for popular attractions in advance

It requires a bit of extra planning but honestly makes for a better experience, too.

How to say...

When you enter a shop or a restaurant you can say "buongiorno" until lunchtime and "buonasera" in the afternoon and evening; when you leave, you should say "arrivederci."

Grazie = thank you

Per favore = please

Prego = you're welcome

When you need your bill at the restaurant just stay at the table and say to the waiter "Mi porta il conto per favore?"
